The date of submitting the notification, application, request or declaration shall be the date of delivering it to the Company so as to make it possible for the notification, application, request or declaration to be considered by the Management Board. The date of posting shall not decide about meeting the deadline.

Additionally, when sending the notification, application, request or declaration in an electronic form:

- 1) letters shall be submitted within a time limit provided for by the procedure; the moment of submission shall be the moment when they entered the medium of the electronic communication in such a way that the individual acting on the Company's behalf is able to familiarize with them taking into account the working hours of the Company's office, i.e. from Mondays to Fridays at 09.00 a.m. – 04.00 p.m.
- 2) the Company shall bear no liability for the consequences caused by inability to use the means of electronic communication with the Company or by e-mails not delivered to the Company, if it was beyond its control. The Stockholder shall incur the risk involved in the use of means of electronic communication;

- 3) all required documentation shall be attached to the e-mail in the form of PDF or JPEG scans. The scans shall be legible.

7) The right of the Stockholder to request certain matters to be added to the General Meeting's agenda.

Pursuant to Art. 401 § of the Code of Commercial Companies and Partnerships, the Stockholder(s) representing not less than one-twentieth of the share capital may request certain matters to be added to the agenda of the next General Meeting. The request shall include a rationale or a draft resolution related to the proposed item of the agenda. Such a request shall be submitted to the Management Board no later than twenty one days prior to the date of the Meeting. The request shall be enclosed with the documents proving, beyond any doubt, that the Stockholder(s), at the moment of submitting the request, represent(s) no less than one-twentieth of the Company's share capital (e.g. a certificate or a stock certificate). The request, its form and the method of its submission shall comply with the law and meet the requirements specified in this notice. If the request meets the aforementioned requirements, the Management Board shall announce changes to the agenda made in accordance with this request. The changes are announced no later than three days prior to the date of the Meeting in the manner appropriate for summoning a general meeting. If the request does not meet the aforementioned requirements, the Company shall, within three working days of the receipt of the request, send a message about the request to the announcing individual indicating any deficiencies preventing the request from being considered. A completed request may be submitted once again only when meeting the aforementioned deadline.

8) The right to propose draft resolutions.

The Stockholder(s) representing jointly no less than one-twentieth of the share capital may, prior to the date of the General Meeting, submit(s) to the Company, in writing or in an electronic version, draft resolutions related to the matters included in the agenda of the Meeting or matters which are to be added to the agenda. The proposal shall be submitted to the Company prior to the date of the General Meeting. The proposal shall be enclosed with the documents proving, beyond any doubt, that the Stockholder(s), at the moment of submitting the proposal, represent(s) no less than one-twentieth of the Company's share capital (e.g. a certificate or a stock certificate). The proposal alongside with the enclosed documents and the method of their submission as well as the form of the proposed draft resolutions shall comply with the law and meets the requirements indicated in this notice. If the proposal meets the aforementioned requirements, draft resolutions are immediately published at the Company's website. If the proposal does not meet the aforementioned requirements, the Company shall, within three working days of the receipt of the proposal (no later than on the day of the Meeting), send a message about the proposal to the announcing individual indicating any deficiencies preventing the draft resolution from being adopted.

Moreover, every Stockholder authorized to participate in the General Meeting may propose draft resolutions related to the matters added to the agenda during the Meeting.

9) Participation in the General Meeting using means of electronic communication and exercising the right to vote by mail or using means of electronic communication.

It shall not be possible to participate in the General Meeting using means of electronic communication. It shall not be possible to exercise the right to vote at the General Meeting by mail or using means of electronic communication

10) Method of exercising the voting right via a proxy.

Pursuant to Art. 412-412² of the Code of Commercial Companies and Partnerships, the Stockholder may participate in the General Meeting and exercise the voting right in person or via a proxy.

The proxy shall exercise all rights of the Stockholder at the General Meeting unless otherwise stipulated in the Power of Attorney. The proxy may grant the power of attorney to further proxies if the power of attorney stipulates so. The proxy may represent multiple Stockholders and each Stockholder's stock entitles him/her to vote differently. A Stockholder who holds stocks on more than one securities account may authorize separate proxies to exercise their rights attached to stocks held on each such an account.

If a member of the Management Board or Supervisory Board, a Company's employee, a member of authorities or an employee of the Company's subsidiary is appointed a proxy at the General Meeting, then the following provisions shall be applicable:

- a) the Power of Attorney authorizes them to represent at one general meeting only;
- b) the proxy is obliged to disclose to the Stockholder any circumstances indicating that a conflict of interests exists or may occur;
- c) granting further power of attorney is excluded
- d) the proxy votes in accordance with instructions provided by the Stockholder.

The forms used during voting via a proxy are published at the Company's website: <http://www.inwestor.northcoast.com.pl/> ("Company profile/Basic information").

The Company does not require using the aforementioned forms for granting the Power of Attorney.

11) Form of the Power of Attorney and notice of granting the Power of Attorney to a proxy.

Power of Attorney to participate in the General Meeting and to exercise the voting right must be granted in writing or in an electronic form. Granting the Power of Attorney in an electronic form does not require providing a secure electronic signature. If the POA is granted in this manner, the granting individual shall notify the Company. The notice (in PDF or JPEG formats) shall be submitted to the Company within a time limit allowing for the verification of the Stockholder and his/her proxy, no later than on one day before the date of the General Meeting. The notice may be in writing or in an electronic form. The notice in a written form shall be sent to the address of the Company's office, i.e. at 3 Maja 8, 05-800 Pruszków. The Management Board remarks that meeting the aforementioned deadline of submitting the notice means delivering it within this period. Posting the notice within this period is not sufficient. The notice in an electronic form shall be sent to the Company at the following address: mwyszynska@northcoats.com.pl.

The notice shall include:

- a) the Stockholder's name and surname; if the Stockholder is not a natural person, the notice shall include the business name and the surnames of persons authorized to grant the POA on his/her behalf,
- b) the type and number of the identity document (in the case of natural persons) or the National Court Register number (in the case of entities entered in the National Court Register),
- c) the proxy's name and surname,
- d) the place of residence (registered office) of the individual granting the POA and the proxy,
- e) information allowing for the verification of the proxy – in particular, PESEL (Electronic System of Population Register) number, as well as ID number and series,
- f) the telephone number and e-mail address allowing for a constant contact with the individual granting the POA,
- g) the date of granting the POA,
- h) indication of a general meeting for which the POA is granted,
- i) the scope of the POA; in particular, any restrictions on the POA and indication if the proxy is authorized to appoint further proxies,
- j) indication if the POA has been revocable.

The notice shall be enclosed with the granted POA or its scan.

If the individual granting the POA and/or the proxy is not a natural person, the notice shall include an updated date of granting the POA and convening the General Meeting, extracts from an appropriate register confirming the form of representation and persons authorized to represent; the entities entered to the National Court Register shall enclose updated extracts from this register.

If the POA is granted to a further proxy, continuous POAs alongside with the documentation proving the right to act on behalf of the earlier proxies and data concerning all the POAs and proxies specified in points a) to j) shall be submitted.

The aforementioned procedures do not release the proxy from the requirement to present documents allowing for his/her identification when drawing up the attendance list including persons authorized to participate in the General Meeting.

If the notice meets the above requirements, the Company shall promptly notify the individual granting the POA of the receipt of the notice. If the notice does not meet the above requirements, the Company shall promptly send information concerning the deficiencies of the notice.

The Company will take appropriate action to identify the Stockholder and proxy, or further proxies, in order to verify the validity of the POA granted in an electronic form. Verification may include in particular questions addressed to the Stockholder and/or proxy in an electronic form or by telephone in order to confirm granting the POA and its scope. The Company hereby provides due notice, however, that in such a case the failure to answer questions asked in the course of verification shall be treated as a failure to verify the validity of POA, and shall represent the basis to refuse admission of the proxy to participate in the General Meeting.

The above procedures shall also apply in connection with revoking the POA granted in an electronic form.

12) Admission to participation in the General Meeting.

Stockholders will be admitted to participation in the General Meeting upon presentation of an official document with a photograph confirming, beyond any doubt, their identity, and proxies:

- a) in case of the Power of Attorney having been granted in a written form – upon presentation of an official document with a photograph confirming, beyond any doubt, their identity and submission of a valid POA granted in a written form. The proxy and/or the individual granting the Power of Attorney, who is not natural persons, are additionally required to submit extracts from an appropriate register confirming the way of representation and listing the persons authorized to represent; the entities entered to the National Court Register are obliged to present an updated extract from this register.
- b) in the case of the Power of Attorney granted in an electronic form – upon presentation of an official document with a photograph proving, beyond any reasonable doubt, their identity.

Stockholders' representatives who are not natural persons are additionally required to present valid extracts from an appropriate register confirming the way of representation and listing the persons authorized to represent; the entities entered to the National Court Register are obliged to present an updated extract from this register.

If a proxy acts on the basis of further granted Power of Attorney, s/he is required to present continuous POAs as well as the above information and documentation for each POA.

The POAs and the required documents confirming the right of a Stockholder or his/her representative to participate in the General Meeting will be attached by the Company to the book of minutes.

Each of the participants is obliged to enter his/her name to the attendance list immediately after arriving at the General Meeting.

13) Recording participation in the General Meeting.

Persons authorized to participate in the General Meeting are requested to register and collect a ballot directly in front of the conference room for half an hour before starting the conference.
